POST DETAILS

Title: Irish Sign Language (ISL) – Specialist Classroom Support (SCS)

Description: The National Council for Special Education (NCSE) was set up to improve the delivery of education services to persons with special educational needs (SEN) arising from disabilities. The Council was first established in December 2003.

The NCSE is an independent civil service body under the aegis of the Department of Education (DE).
The Headquarters of the NCSE is located in Trim, Co. Meath and it has 30 local offices throughout the State.

Currently NCSE support services are delivered through our regional teams comprising: Each region has two teams comprising Advisors, SENOs and Visiting Teachers who are led by a Team Manager. A team in both the Dublin and South East also comprise of OTs, SLTs and Behaviour Practitioners. A Regional Manager manages two Team Managers.

In addition to the above, the Department of Education is creating a new role of ISL Specialist Classroom Support (SCS) to provide intensive in-class communication support for individual students who meet specific criteria, that is students who were born without an auditory nerve or due to infection, disease, trauma or failed technology intervention (Cochlear Implants), their auditory nerve has ceased to function completely and require this level of additional specialist support.

NCSE is now seeking qualified applicants to form Panels for – Specialist Classroom Support role which may arise throughout the country in counties on our Regional Teams;
On the application form candidates may select up to a maximum of three locations and should only select locations where they would be prepared to work if offered an appointment.
Please note that the successful candidate will be seconded from the NCSE to work in a designated school for specific periods.
