Finglas Parochial National School is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all suitably qualified members of the teaching profession.

We are a small, vibrant, English-speaking, mainstream school with inclusive practice at its heart.

The Special Education Teacher role is a vital part of our school community and our class teachers and SNAs work together with the SET to ensure an enriching educational experience for our pupils.

The ideal candidate will:

Display a commitment to true flexibility and an ability to think on their feet.
Demonstrate knowledge of the Continuum of Support and the role of the SET in relation to this.
Have a love of education and be passionate about teaching.
Seek to continue learning and growing in the role.
Be happy to work as part of a busy team.

In turn, we can offer you a warm welcome, a varied environment, support from all members of our team, and a wealth of learning opportunities. We currently have a staff of twelve, with four teachers, four SNAs, one shared HSCL teacher, one principal release supply teacher, a secretary and a traffic warden.

Interviews to take place during the week of April 8th, after school hours.
